

Petals of Hope

Petals of hope adorning life's garden awaiting the sun's warm embrace The storms of life blow breaking open the treasure releasing the fragrance of faith

Costly perfume hidden deep in each blossom made richer by sorrow and tears Only released when the flower is broken and the promise of faith is made clear

Sweet smelling savor, arising to Heaven surrounding eternity's throne Soft breezes will carry the fragrance forever Released by the petals of hope.
