Those left to cherish her memory include her daughter's Jennifer (Ross) McClain, and Corey Langdon; two grandchildren, Porter and Piper Langdon; mother, Cathy (Merlin) Howard; sister, Brenda (Stuart) Wengreen; and companion, Larry Keesler. She was preceded in death by her father, Roy Roper.

Throughout her life, her compassionate and loving heart touched all who knew her. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

When I'm Gone

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay,
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west.
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.*
